SINGLES. Shakira with the help of Wyclef Jean is at #1 again with Hips Don't Lie, while The Young Divas – Paulini, Ricki-Lee, Kate DeArango and Emily Williams – climb two places to #2 with This Time I Know It's For Real. Pink jumps high with Who Knew – the single leaped three spots to #3. Sean Paul enters the top 10 at # 8 with the very hot hit Temperature, while The Butterfly Effect come fluttering in to land at #9 with A Slow Descent.

No.26 SIN SIN SIN – Robbie Williams. He is the most successful group member to come out of Take That. With two #1 albums, sell out concerts across the globe and living the bachelor's life any man would dream of. Sin Sin Sin is the third single to be lifted off Williams' current album Intensive Care (#1 Oct. '05). The single follows Tripping and Advertising Space. For those lucky enough to have got your hands on Robbie tickets, count your lucky stars as he has sold out concerts across the nation.

No.32 BE TOGETHER – T-Funk Feat. Katie Underwood. T-Funk is the alias of Melbourne DJ/ Producer Timothy Dudfield, who also goes under the name, mrTimothy. Under both personas, T-Funk has had enjoyed chart success with his previous releases including – The Glamorous Life (#31 Oct. '05), I Am Tha 1 (#28 July '04), I'm On My Way (I'm Coming) (#89 July '05) and Stand By Me (#59 Nov. '04). Be Together features ex-Bardot member Katie Underwood and was #1 on the ARIA Club Chart recently.

No.34 SUPERMASSIVE BLACK HOLE – Muse. Muse come from a little town in England and the band consists of long time friends, guitarist / vocalist Matthew Bellamy, bassist Chris Wolstenhome and drummer Dominic Howard. It all started when they were thirteen, bored of their town, and decided to excite things by becoming a band. Muse was not their first name of choice, they started off as Gothic Plague then Fixed Penalty and then Rocket Baby Dolls as the years passed. By 1997 the band settled with name Muse. This is their third single to hit the top 100 singles chart, following – Hysteria (#61 Jan. '04) and Plug In Baby (#57 Apr. '01).

No.39 WOMAN – Wolfmother. Wolfmother hail from Erskinville, Sydney. This track was previously released in '05 as a double A-side with Minds Eye. It peaked at #29 in October that year. This curly haired trio including Andrew Stockdale, Chris Ross and Myles Heskett. Their music is very nostalgic with the '70s as the band was inspired from super bands of that era including Deep Purple, Black Sabbath and Led Zepplin. Wolfmother is currently on an extensive tour of Europe and USA but are back next month for a quick tour of home. Previous tracks to chart well are White Unicorn at #33 in March '06 and the Wolfmother EP reaching #35 in February last year.

No.45 JCB SONG – Nizlopi. Nizlopi is a two piece band consisting of Luke Concannon on guitar / vocals and John Parker on double bass / human beatbox / vocals. They are a new folk band from the UK and are named after a Hungarian girl that Concannon had a crush on back at school. The JCB Song has already toppled the UK chart and was written about Concannon's troubles with dyslexia at school and his little escapades he got up to back then. This is their debut to the ARIA Singles chart.

No.51 LOVE SENSATION '06 – Loleatta Holloway. Loleatta Holloway was born in 1946 and grew up singing in her mother's gospel choir. Known for her big voice, Holloway is one of the true disco divas and has been featured on numerous tracks including Black Box's Ride On Time and Marky Mark And The Funky Bunch's track Good Vibrations, with both tracks sampling Love Sensation. This is Holloway's first single to chart inside the Top 100.

No.62 THE MCCLYMONTS – The McClymonts. The McClymonts are sisters Brooke, Samantha and Mollie. They live in Grafton on New South Wales' north coast – the home to rockers Grinspoon. Each of the girls has taken the country music industry by storm in one way or another. Brooke is a seasoned singer and songwriter, having penned tracks for the likes of Hilary Duff, Australian Idol winner Kate DeArango and the Aussie sweetheart herself, Olivia Newton-John. Brooke has also toured with Ronan Keating, opening for him at his gigs. Samantha won a Golden Guitar for the song Cookin' In My Kitchen, which Brooke wrote and youngest sister Mollie has been busy winning talent concerts left, right and centre! The three girls have now pooled their talents together and look forward to more music success.

No.82 HOLD ON – Phrase. Melbourne hip hop artist Phrase grew up on a musical diet of Ice Cube and 2Pac before discovering local rap and rhymes. He related to the stories being told so decided to make his own. His single Catch Phrase peaked at #55 earlier this year and he has collaborated with Jade Macrae and Daniel Merriweather. Hold On tells of the struggles of growing up in suburbia and of young lives gone wrong. Each story told in the track are true depictions of what Phrase has witnessed or experienced. Melbourne blues singer Max White laid down his vocals for the song.

No.100 CROOKED TEETH – Death Cab For Cutie. Formed in Washington, Death Cab For Cutie got their unique name from a song by The Bonzo Dog Doo-Dah Band, a U.K. rock act from the 1960s. The song Death Cab For Cutie was used in a striptease scene in The Beatles' Magic Mystery Tour. The band consists of Ben Gibbard, Chris Walla, Nicholas Harmer and Jason McGerr. They have had one of their tracks feature in the television show The O.C. Their album Plans peaked at #48 in September last year.

ALBUMS. Aussie artists are keeping strong in the top 10, while the international talent falters. Eskimo Joe holds the fort with Black Fingernails, Red Wine - it is at #1 for the second week in a row. Australian hard-rock act The Butterfly Effect debut at #2 with Imago, which pushes Chris Isaak's Best Of album down to #3. Everyone else takes a tumble this week except the ever-strong Rogue Traders who jump up a place to sit at #7.

No.2 IMAGO – The Butterfly Effect. Forming in Brisbane in 2001, The Butterfly Effect enjoyed minor success in the underground rock community before youth radio station Triple J got a hold of their E.P. The Butterfly Effect E.P. peaked outside the top 100 but enabled the band to develop a fan base that is strong and continuously growing today. Headed by Clint Boge on vocals, The Butterfly Effect consists of Ben Hall (drums), Kurt Goedhart (guitar) and Glenn Esmond (bass). The boys have played all major music festivals in the country and had a smash hit with their album Begins Here which reached #23 in August 2003. The first single from Imago is A Slow Descent which is sitting pretty at #9 this week.

No.16 UNDER THE IRON SEA – Keane. Childhood friends Tom, Richard and Tim grew up in England and decided to form Keane in 1997 when each of them was in college. They began as a cover band, playing ditties by the Beatles, Oasis and U2. Little did they know that after taking the world by storm with Hopes And Fears (#42, Sep. '04) that they would actually be opening for U2 - a far cry from covering their songs! Keane scored a Grammy nomination for Best New Artist which is a feat for a band with no guitarist. Rather than using the guitar, the lads base their music on the piano, making them quite unique.

No.23 COATHANGER ANTENNAE – Diesel. Diesel also is known under the monikers Johnny Diesel and Mark Lizotte, with the latter being his real name. As part of Johnny Diesel & The Injectors, Diesel saw their self-titled album peak at #2 (May '89). However, launching his solo career as Diesel, he went one better by reaching the pinnacle position with two albums – Heptidelity (#1, Mar. '92) and The Lobbyist (#1, Aug. '93). Going by his real name of Mark Lizotte, he saw Lost Soul Companion reach #18 (Oct. '99). Diesel has won the Best Male Artist ARIA Award three years in a row (1992, 1993 and 1994). He has an interesting musical family, being the son of a saxophonist, brother-in-law to Jimmy Barnes and uncle to David Campbell!

No.37 UNDERAGE THINKING – Teddy Geiger. Hailing from New York is Teddy Geiger, the newest sensation in acoustic pop-rock. A huge Dean Martin fan, Geiger channels John Mayer in his music, writing and performing soulful music with smooth vocals. Geiger is a self-taught musician who played guitar, piano, bass and drums on Underage Thinking. He is a gifted songwriter, writing or co-writing 11 of the 12 tracks on the album. The 17 year old has an army of fans who call themselves "Tedheads" and wants to learn how to play the clarinet. The debut single from the album, For You I Will (Confidence) is at #23 on the ARIA Singles Chart this week.

No.57 WISH UPON A STAR – Hi-5. Kathleen, Kellie, Charli, Tim and Nathan are back with another top 100 smash hit album. All five of the vibrant cast members have grown up singing and dancing and have entertained kids (and their parents!) for the past seven years. Albums to make their mark on the chart include Jump And Jive With Hi-5 (#33, Dec. '99), It's A Party (#4, Aug. '00), Boom Boom Beat (#3, Aug. '01), Celebrate (#27, Oct. '02), Hi-5 Holiday (#26, Apr. '04) and Jingle Jangle Jingle With Hi-5 (#55, Nov. '04).

No.77 FAST & THE FURIOUS (TOKYO DRIFT) – Soundtrack. The latest installment of the Fast & Furious movie series starring rapper Bow Wow is set in Tokyo but that is probably the only difference. The movie keeps true to form and features loud music, loud cars and lots of girls! The soundtrack features rock and hip-hop tunes including offerings from Don Omar, Brian Tyler (who has Guns 'N Roses' Slash feature on guitar), Juelz Santana with There It Go (#33, Mar. '06) and N.E.R.D. with She Wants To Move (#21, Apr. '04).
